

Celebrate Summer and Green Volunteering in Denver and Join Us for a Summer Bicycle Ride from City Park through Denver Botanic Gardens to Washington Park.

Volunteers for Outdoor Colorado (VOC), BikeDenver and the Denver Botanic Gardens are sponsoring a park to park bicycle ride and summer social. Join us as we ride from Thatcher Fountain in Denver's City Park, through the Denver Botanic Gardens (a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity!) to the Dos Chappell Bathhouse in Washington Park. At the conclusion of the ride, participants will enjoy food and drinks provided by sponsors New Belgium and Noodles & Company.

Tuesday, June 16th, 2009

Ride leaves City Park at 6:00pm

Cruise through the Denver Botanic Gardens at 6:15pm!!

Refreshments at Washington Park's
Dos Chappell Bathhouse at 6:30pm

Dust off your bike and come join the fun with three Denver-based non-profits that are working to take care of YOUR environment.

Meet at Thatcher Fountain in City Park before 6:00pm to sign a ride waiver. BikeDenver ride leaders will lead you on a pre-planned route to VOC headquarters to enjoy libations and a picnic on the patio overlooking Smith Lake.

BikeDenver teaches ride participants to ride safely and legally in traffic. Helmets are required. This is a social ride designed for riders of all abilities, no one is left behind!

REGISTER FOR THE RIDE AND PICNIC at www.volunteeroutdoors.net

If you are new to VolunteerOutdoors, please be sure to create a profile, then search for the Park to Park Summer Solstice Cruiser Ride.

